Question

- What day is the Lord's day?
 - ▣ John said, "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet" (Rev. 1:10)
 - ▣ That indicates that there is a certain day of special significance to the Lord and His followers

Question

- Is that day the Sabbath or Sunday?
 - ▣ It is not the Sabbath Day!
 - Ended On the cross (Col. 2:14; Rom. 7:6-7)
 - Replaced by a new and better covenant (Heb. 8:6-13)
 - Trying to be justified by the Law of Moses (of which the Sabbath is part of) causes one to fall from grace (Gal. 5:4)

Sunday is the day of Special Significance!

- What The Bible Says About The First Day Of The Week
 - ▣ Jesus Christ arose from the dead on the first day of the week. (Mark 16:1-9)
 - ▣ On the first day of the week He was thus declared to be the Son of God. (Rom. 1:4)
 - ▣ He met with His disciples each first day of the week between His resurrection and His ascension. (John 20:1,19,26)

Furthermore

- Pentecost came on the first day of the week (Lev. 23:15). Hence, all the events of the second chapter of Acts—the birthday of the church—took place on the first day of the week (Acts 2:1).
- The Holy Spirit imbued the apostles on the first day of the week and began His mission of conversion. (Acts 2:1-4)

And

- The first gospel sermon proclaiming Jesus as the Son of God was preached on the first day of the week.
(Acts 2:22-36)
- Three thousand souls—the first fruits of the gospel harvest (Lev. 23:17)—were added to the church which began on that Pentecost—the first day of the week.
(Acts 2:41,47)

And still more

- That the church assembled on the first day of the week to break bread—to observe the Lord's Supper and other items of New Testament worship. (Acts 20:7; Acts 2:42; I Cor. 16:2; I Cor. 11:23,33; Heb. 10:25).

And

- In the New Testament we have the following new things:
 - A new covenant
 - A new institution—the church
 - A new set of ordinances—commandments (I Cor. 11:2; 14:37)
 - A new feast—the Lord's Supper
 - A new day—the first day of the week
 - A new word to express the new day—Kuriakos, “Lord's day,” a word which was never used before (Revelation 1:10).
 - The chart by Foy Wallace, Jr.
